CONDITIONS OF SALE

1. The highest accepted bidder, subject to the vendor's reserve (if any) to be the purchaser and if any dispute arises between two or more bidders the lot in dispute to be immediately put up again at the last undisputed bidding and resold, the Auctioneers to be sole arbitrators in all matters in dispute. The Auctioneers reserve the right of bidding for, withdrawing from, consolidating or dividing any lots, or varying the order of the sale.
2. No Private Treaty Sale prior to Auction will be permitted.
3. No person to advance less than the sum named by the Auctioneers, and no bidding to be retracted.
4. All prospective purchases to give in their names and places of abode when registering with the auctioneers on the day of sale, and to pay the whole of the purchase money at the fall of the hammer, (in default of this the lots or lots purchased will immediately put up again and resold)
5. The whole of the remainder of the purchase money must be paid on or before delivery. If one person purchases two or more lots the prices of all must be paid before delivery of any. No cheques will be taken from previous unknown to the auctioneers without a satisfactory reference or bankers guarantee. All lots to be paid for and cleared on the day of the sale.
6. On no accounts will the transferring of any lot or lots be allowed.
7. No lot to be removed without a ticket / pass given out by the Wellers Auctions office staff.
8. No vehicle purchased in this sale can be taken on the highway unless the purchaser has first satisfied himself as to the roadworthiness thereof.
9. Purchasers so have no right as against the auctioneers or vendor to avail themselves of any set-off or other plea in respect of any error, miss description, defect or deficiency, either on the part of the auctioneers or the vendor, and the vendor shall have no rights against the auctioneers for any proceeds of sale until they have received same, unless they deliver the lot or lots to a purchaser without the consent of a vendor.
10. To avoid mistakes, no lots must on any account whatever be taken away unless delivered by the person appointed for this purpose. The lots or lots not cleared within the specified time shall be resold without further notice by public or private sale at the discretion of the auctioneers and the deficiency (if any) together with all charges attending the same shall be made good by the defaulter or defaulters at this sale, who shall have no claim to any surplus which may arise at such second sale.
11. The lots lie at the purchaser's risk immediately they are sold and shall be cleared away, with all faults, defects, deficiencies and errors of description by the purchaser, at his or her expense, not later than one day after the auction. The whole of the remainder of the money must be paid on or before delivery and the purchaser shall be answerable for any damage or loss occasioned by the removal of their respective lots, either to then lots or to the premises, the amount of such damage to be assessed by the auctioneers. The auctioneers reserved the right to make an allowance in proportion to the purchaser money of such lots for the whole or any portion of the lots not delivered.
12. All measurements, weights, ages, dates of service and other particulars in the catalogue, whether relating to live or dead stock, our statements of fact only and are bona fide given on the information supplied to the auctioneers, but the auctioneers will not under any circumstances be responsible, nor will any allowance whatever be made to the purchasers, should there be any error or mis-description in any lot in the catalogue and no warranty is given or to be implied by or under any description in the catalogue. This condition of sale shall not apply to any warranty incorporated in the catalogue containing words expressly excluding the same.
13. The auctioneers take no personal responsibility for the correctness of any statements in the catalogue which are made on the entire responsibility of the vendors.
14. The auctioneers will, save where in there absolute discretion they decide not to do so, disclose to a purchaser on request the name, the description and address as given to them of the vendor of a lot. Whether or not the auctioneers disclose a vendor's name they will be deemed in all cases and for all purposes to sell as agents for a disclosed principle.
15. All lots in the sale are deemed by the auctioneers to belong to the person making the entry (except when an entry is made by an agent acting on behalf of a disclosed principle, then the said lots shall be deemed to belong to that principle) who shall be the vendor and bona fide owner entitled to payment for the lot or lots. If any lot or lots are the subject of a higher purchase agreement this must be disclosed at the time of making the entry, the auctioneers reserve the right of withdrawing at any time any lot or lots which are the subject of a higher purchase agreement.
16. The auctioneers accept no responsibility for any payment made to a vendor purporting to be the bona fide owner entitled to payment if it subsequently transpires that the payment is in respect of a lot or lots which are the subject of a higher purchase agreement between the vendor and another, in such a case the auctioneers disclaimed all liability to discharge any obligation of the vendor to the other party to the said agreement.
17. If the auctioneers shall be paid out of their own monies the purchase money of a lot to the vendor before they have received any notice of objection from the purchaser with respect to that lot, they are entitled to recover The full purchase money of the lot from the purchaser, and the purchaser shall not have any right of set-off against the auctioneers, notwithstanding any claim he or she may have against the vendor.
18. In the event of any conflict arising between these conditions of sale and any other entry in the Catalogue of Sale, these conditions shall prevail.
19. The vendor reserves the right to withdraw any lots prior to sale.

DIRECTIONS

The Crossroads saleground is located at West Meon Hut, GU32 1JX near the junction of the A32 and A272. Travelling from Petersfield along the A272 go straight over the A32 crossroads with the BP garage on your left and the saleground will be a few hundred metres along the A272. From Winchester, take the A272 towards Petersfield, if you get to the A32 crossroads and BP garage you have gone too far. From Alton travel along the A32 towards the West Meon hut crossroads. Turn right and the saleground will be a few hundred metres along the A272.

Please note if traveling from Petersfield the A272 is reported to have a road closure, diversions are in place but please leave extra travelling time.

CONSIGN TO AUCTION

We are pleased to announce that following the conclusion of the Autumn West Meon auction we will once again be accepting entries to our first West Meon collective auction of 2026. We are yet to announce our dates for next year, but if you would like to sell in our first auction next year, you can do so online.

The auction will once again take place at the popular site at the West Meon Crossroads Sale ground in Hampshire, and if you have any items you would like to move onto a new home then we would love to hear from you! You can get in touch with us at any time using the contact details below, or you can consign using the QR code on the next page.
